Filing of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case	A bankruptcy case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (title 11, United States Code) has been filed in this court by the debtors listed on the front side of this notice, and orders for relief have been entered. Chapter 11 allows a debtor to reorganize or liquidate pursuant to a plan. A plan is not effective unless confirmed by the court. You may be sent a copy of a plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the debtors' plan(s), and you might have the opportunity to vote on a plan(s). You will be sent notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan(s) and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtors will remain in possession of the property and may continue to operate any businesses.
Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions	Prohibited collection actions are listed in Bankruptcy Code § 362. Common examples of prohibited actions include contacting the Debtors by telephone, mail or otherwise to demand repayment; taking actions to collect money or obtain property from the Debtors; repossessing the debtors' property; and starting or continuing lawsuits or foreclosures.
Meeting of Creditors	A meeting of creditors is scheduled for the date, time and location listed on the front side. The debtors' representative must be present at the meeting in order to be questioned under oath by the trustee and creditors. Creditors are welcome to attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued and could be concluded at a later date without further notice.
Claims	A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. If a proof of claim form is not included with this notice, you can obtain one at any bankruptcy clerk's office, or by visiting the Court's website at http://www.cacb.uscourts.gov . Schedules of amounts due to creditors have been filed by the Debtors pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007. You may look at the schedules that have been filed at the bankruptcy clerk's office, or by visiting the courts website at http://www.cacb.uscourts.gov or at the Debtors website http://www.cfwy.com or at the following location, JNS Copy Service, 3800 Orange St, Suite 260, Riverside CA 92501. If your claim is scheduled and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, your claim will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless you file a proof of claim, or you are sent further notice about the claim. Whether or not your claim is scheduled, you are permitted to file a Proof of Claim. If your claim is not listed at all, or if your claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, then you must file a proof of claim or you might not be paid any money on your claim against the Debtors in these bankruptcy cases. The Court has set a deadline for filing a Proof of Claim as February 7, 2003. A separate notice of such deadline is being sent to you concurrently herewith.
Discharge of Debts	Confirmation of a Chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See Bankruptcy Code § 1141(d). A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtors, except as provided in the plan.
Bankruptcy Clerk's Office	Any paper you file in these bankruptcy cases should be filed at the Bankruptcy Clerk's office at the address listed on the front side. You may inspect all papers filed in these cases, including the list of the Debtors' property and debts. Documents are available for inspection at the bankruptcy clerk's office. In addition, such documents may be available at http://www.cacb.uscourts.gov or at the following location, JNS Copy Service, 3800 Orange St, Suite 260, Riverside CA 92501.
